

SAVE THE DATE

MARTHA WEHRLE OPENING LECTURE 2017 NATIONAL YOUTH SCIENCE CAMP

What: Martha Wehrle Kickoff to NYSC 2017

Where: Geary Auditorium at the University of Charleston

When: June 15th – 12:00 Noon

Who: Jon Boggs, Dan Carder, Greg Thompson

Topic: The VW Diesel Emissions Fraud Case – At the Intersection of Science, Environmental Policy, Ethics and Law

As the opening lecture to the National Youth Science Camp, the annual Martha Wehrle Lecture Series has a reputation for attracting high-profile speakers, and this year is no different. Jon Boggs, Dan Carder, and Greg Thompson are the keynote speakers. Boggs is a partner of Bailey Glasser LLP. Along with WVU/CAFEE's Dan Carder and Greg Thompson, they provided critical technical leadership on the Volkswagen Diesel Emissions lawsuit. They will be providing their unique in-depth perspectives on the case with a look into science, ethics, and legal discoveries.

Open to the public and the press

Special Thanks to our Sponsors:

Contact:
Rich West, NYSF Development Officer
304-552-2717
rich.west@nysf.com

National Youth Science Foundation
PO Box 3387
Charleston, West Virginia 25333